AGENDA:

Please join us as Nigeria National Petroleum Corporation – one of the world's major oil companies and an increasing force in West Africa -- discusses procurement opportunities for its operations in Nigeria. It will also detail new requirements for partnership and local content as well as ongoing and future projects and investment. NNPC will talk about how U.S. businesses can partner to bring new technology to meet growing demand and new requirements. NNPC's procurement and investment team will outline the goods and services it expects to procure directly from U.S. companies over the next year, as well as its overall strategic sourcing and investment plan. During the seminar, Engr. A. L. Yar'adua Group Managing Director will give an overview of NNPC and its investment drive. Engr C. O. Ogiemwonyi, will discuss the new investment opportunities in Nigerian upstream oil, gas and energy industries. Dr. W. O. Ayangbile will explain contracting & procurement regimes and guidelines in NNPC. Alh. Shehu Ladan will also present the new NNPC commercial outlook, investment partnership and strategy. Mrs. H. A. Abdullahi, GGM Investment and Dr A. Balogun GGM New Business will support him. Other key NNPC Managers will present NNPC's procurement processes, partnering and investment strategies for upcoming projects. NNPC's representatives will be available after the program to talk with company representatives individually.
